MISCELLANEOUS.

* * * * *

To supply deficiency in the appropriation for the public printing, one hundred and eleven thousand dollars: Provided, That hereafter no printing or binding shall be done, or blank books be procured, for any of the Executive Departments of the Government without a written requisition on the Superintendent of Public Printing from the head of such Department, or for either House of Congress, except on the written order of the Secretary of the Senate or Clerk of the House of Representatives, for which said printing, binding, or blank books may be required. And the said Superintendent, in his annual report, shall hereafter be required to report the amount of work ordered and done, with a general classification thereof, for each Department.

* * * * *

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That in addition to the clerical force now authorized by law, the following clerks and employees are hereby authorized in the several departments and offices hereinafter specified, to be employed and continue only during the rebellion, and for one year after its close, viz:

* * * * *

In the Office of the Adjutant General, two clerks of class four, eight of class three, nineteen of class two, and seventy-four of class one.

In the Office of the Quartermaster General, fifteen clerks of class three, thirty-five of class two, one hundred and ten of class one, and six laborers at an annual salary of six hundred dollars each.

In the Paymaster General's Office, nine clerks of class three, twenty-six of class two, seventy-five of class one, three messengers at an annual salary of eight hundred and forty dollars each, and four watchmen at an annual salary of six hundred dollars each.
